

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Twenty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time August 31 & September 1, 2024

Rejoice always.
Pray without ceasing.
In all circumstances give thanks,
for this is the will of God
for you in Christ Jesus.
1 Thessalonians 5

Pray Always, and in All Ways!

You will be seeing and experiencing this phrase on prayer over the next year. Imagine, every time we gather, there being a new angle on God's presence, a new gift of God's grace or a new way to dive into God's glory. Through our G.O.D. program and all aspects of our parish life we will rejoice as we draw closer to the living water of God's beauty.

"In God alone there is rest for my soul." Psalm 62:1

"God, you are my God. I long for you." Psalm 63:1

"Be still. Know that I am God." Psalm 46:10

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." Jeremiah 1:4-10

"Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls." James 1:21

"Celebrate the beauty of creation." Psalm 104

Each of these verses from Scripture are starting points for prayer. Allowing God's Word and presence to permeate our very being is the act of becoming Christ in our world today. There is no greater joy than to unite with Christ within all of God's creation.

What can we expect of prayer over these next months?

Here are a few teasers that may help you whet your appetites:

Prayer stations, peace cranes, sharing favorite prayers, bringing prayer into daily chores and routines, experiences of prayer, G.O.D. evenings centered on prayer, Taize Evening Prayer, and quiet prayer in liturgies to name a few. I am excited to be immersed in "God alone", to "be still", to be "known by God." Take a verse from above, or your favorite verse, and be quiet in the moment as these words center you in holiness and peace.

As the children go back to school, maybe we can all go back to school, prayer school, and surround ourselves with God's loving grace. I continue to pray for our enlightenment and salvation,

Fr. Tom

Exciting EPH News

Approximately 2 years ago, our Ecumenical Partnership for Housing (EPH) family successfully completed the EPH transitional program and moved from our Ruth House duplex to an EPH long-term home on North Platten Street. The family has been renting this home since they moved. Many Resurrection parishioners worked at the North Platten home in preparation for the move, made a meal for the family and/or kept the family in prayer.

While living in the North Platten house and participating in EPH case management, the mother was able to increase her income and credit score thus putting herself in a financial position to get approval for a home loan from three financial organizations! She asked EPH if she could purchase the North Platten home at market value, $182,000. The EPH board approved the home purchase and will use the home sale proceeds to purchase another home for EPH. This is the second EPH family to purchase a home from EPH.

Thanks for your contribution to this success story.

Kitty Barry,
EPH Board Member representing Resurrection Parish
