

Resurrection Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Third Sunday of Advent December 14 & 15, 2024

“Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none.
And whoever has food
should do likewise.”

Luke 3:11

The Advent of Grandpa George

Along with John the Baptist, my maternal Grandpa George has been a model for me to live my faith in my daily life. My mother enjoys telling the story of when her Dad owned a meat market in Little Chute. When an order of meat and groceries went to a home, he would quietly slip a little bag of penny candy into the order. It was not only a good business practice, but it was a gesture that came from the bottom of his heart. Grandpa George was one who never passed anyone by without a kind inquiry about who the stranger might be or how that person’s day was going. He always had the interest of the other in mind as he greeted them. Grandpa’s faith always led him to faithful action. We could put many ribbons on our Tree of Life in memory of his actions.

John the Baptist’s mission was one of repenting of sin and ordering our lives according to God’s way. He must have been a bit gruff in his manner as he seems to have had people trembling as he preached at them, “You brood of vipers!” I would be trembling also! So they timidly inquired, “What should we do?” John was very clear about his mission as he admonished them to share what they had with their neighbors and to treat all people fairly. Real faith means real life actions. That is salvation. For John and for my Grandpa George, you can’t have one without the other.

As we are companioned this Advent season by Mary and Elizabeth, we see with them, as with John the Baptist, that there is one greater than I that is coming. The Advent of someone or something greater than ourselves is always the way of the Lord. Our two faithful women guides provide us with examples of expectation at the birth of new life.

May Advent be the time to order our lives and more fully live out our salvation through our words and actions.

Advent Blessings,
Fr. Tom

Calling All Sandwich Makers

Warming of the Heart is a new collaborative venture of nine churches, housed at Samaritan's Heart Mission Church, to provide a place to go on Sunday afternoons for our unsheltered brothers and sisters.

Resurrection Parish has agreed to provide sandwiches for those who need a bite to eat during these cold, winter days.

Would you be willing to make 12-15 sandwiches once a month for this effort? Please contact Tony Pichler if interested, for more information, and to be placed on the schedule.

Please join in prayers of gratitude for the little ones baptized into our family of faith on December 15.
