Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-First Sunday of Ordinary Time November 2 & 3, 2024

You Are the Future Becoming Today

There are many storylines about people seeing into the future of their lives and wondering how they got there. Some are happy endings, some try to change their life path, and others are devastated by their present choices. This week is loaded with images and paths that can bring us to reflect on where we have been and where we choose to go into the future.

The Solemnity of All Saints speaks of desiring an authentic joy and happiness described in the Beatitudes. Choosing to be meek, humble, attentive to hunger for righteousness, and being clean of heart are among the good standards to drive our lives of holiness.

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day) is a time to appreciate who has gone before us. Celebrating our ancestors is important, but more important for us today is to recognize the many gifts and teachings they have given us that led us to who we are today. We have notions of being independent in our lives but truth be told, we are a strong product of the faith and experiences of our biological families as well as the culture that surrounds us.

The future, individually and universally, very much depends on how we love today. Our Gospel this weekend puts us in line with God's plan for creation of which we are a small but significant part. From the beginning of creation there is no other than God's creative life force from which springs forth our life path today. Our daily choices point toward how fully we can respond to that creative life force with all of our hearts, with all of our understanding, and with all our strength as we encounter our neighbor as ourselves.

To be a saint in the ways of God, to honor those who have formed and shaped us in the past and to daily keep our eyes, and hearts open to the goodness that surrounds us are guidelines to follow God's great commandment.

Blessings as you are the future becoming in love,
Fr. Tom

Pray Always and In All Ways

The month of November is dedicated to the memory of all Holy Souls. Let us remember our departed loved ones and all the faithful departed, lifting them up in our prayers throughout this special month.

Take a few minutes to light a candle each weekend during November. Add decorations around the candle, especially some pictures of those relatives and friends who have been born into eternal life.

If you don't have pictures, list the names of those you are praying for and set the list beside your candle.

Resurrection Prayer Chain

If you have a prayer need or would like to join the pray-ers, call DeDe Szurgot at 920-336-9526 or Bonnie Lemerond at 920-471-6545. Confidentiality is assured.

No Shave November Returns

Resurrection is raising awareness of the personal grooming needs of our brothers and sisters in local shelters. Join the effort by donating razors, shaving cream, and aftershave for men and women who do not have regular access to these items.

Each local shelter will be represented by a parish staff member. Support the shelter or parish staff member of your choice by placing shaving supplies in their respective box in the main greeting area.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Book Drive

Resurrection continues to collect new children's books to support Sleep in Heavenly Peace. A collection box is located near the main church doors, and in the Door #9 vestibule, the office door facing Delahaut.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace is an organization dedicated to building and delivering bunk beds to children in need. Mackenzie, a Resurrection youth, began collecting books because she believes every child that receives a bed should also receive a bedtime story.
