

RESURRECTION Catholic Parish

Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time November 9 & 10, 2024

*We make a living
by what we get,
but we make a life
by what we give.*
Winston Churchill

A Penny For Your Thoughts

I wish everyone at Resurrection Parish could meet my friend Penny. She is a middle-aged woman who lives in an apartment near St. John's Park. Our StreetLights Outreach volunteers met Penny when she walked across the street one night last summer to say hello and grab a bite to eat. Little by little we were able to learn that Penny not only has one of the biggest smiles you will ever encounter, but she is generous beyond belief.

Penny works as a cake decorator at the eastside Dairy Queen on Main Street. I have to admit that I absolutely love DQ frozen cakes with their layers of goodness. Penny was able to share what goes into making those cakes and the secrets of how the deliciousness comes together.

One evening Penny came over to the park again, but this time she was carrying something in her hand. After the usual greetings and hugs, with a check-in on how our day had gone, Penny reached out and gave me a bag, filled with nothing other than pennies. Yes! Penny had given me a bag of pennies (and some nickels, dimes and quarters as well)! For a woman who only works a few hours a day making DQ cakes, this donation of pennies felt greater than the checks that show up in our mailbox, sometimes in the amount of $50 and sometimes more than a $1,000, to pay for the outreach activities of Whatsoever You Do, Inc.

In the first reading for this weekend from 1 Kings, the prophet Elijah encounters the widow at Zarephath who only has a handful of flour and a cup of oil to feed she and her son. When Elijah asks her to feed him, the widow admits that her and her son will die soon as their food is running out. Elijah promises that since she was so generous to him, the widow and her son would eat for another year. And they did!

In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus tells the story of the widow who gave two mites, two pennies, to the synagogue treasury. Jesus shares that this woman, who gave all she had in her poverty, provided from a greater depth than those who were wealthy.

In these coming weeks, we have an opportunity to reach into our purses and wallets, our bank accounts and investment dividends to help our parish reach out to the poor in our community. The annual parish stewardship letter, asking you to consider an increase in your generosity to make possible the plethora of programs and offerings that happen here, is coming your way.

You will also be receiving the annual Orange Envelope for our Mission Outreach programs, including the hundreds of meals that are served in shelters each week; the money that is distributed to area, regional, and international organizations through our Mission Outreach Mini Grants; and the seemingly weekly encounters with the "widows" of our community who need a little help to continue through this journey of life.

I am so grateful for your generosity in all of the ways that we are able to love all God's people all the time through our mission outreach endeavors. Perhaps you should treat yourself and go down to the eastside DQ and order that frozen cake from Penny that you so richly deserve!

No Shave November Returns

Resurrection is raising awareness of the personal grooming needs of our brothers and sisters in local shelters. Join the effort by donating razors, shaving cream, and aftershave for men and women who do not have regular access to these items.

Each local shelter will be represented by a parish staff member. Support the shelter or parish staff member of your choice by placing shaving supplies in their respective box in the main greeting area.

Disrupting Darkness: Light, Love, and the Birth of Jesus

This Just Faith Advent Small Group is for anyone willing to uncover the true meaning of Christmas and discern how it calls them to live differently.

Additionally, for those facing difficult times in their lives, the festivities of the Advent season can feel lonely and painful. This series invites participants to accompany one another in bearing witness to the suffering and darkness of our lives and our world by creating a space for lament and healing.

StreetLights Outreach Gratitude

StreetLights Outreach has provided a positive presence on the streets of Green Bay from May 1 until the first week of November when more shelter opportunities became available for our unsheltered sisters and brothers.

Many thanks to those who made sandwiches, donated chips and water, and made delicious cookies and other desserts. Thanks, too, to the many parishioners who donated blankets, sleeping bags, tarps, and jackets during this month of October. Everything donated has been distributed to those on the streets. A special thank you to the students and families of Fr. Allouez Catholic School who came together last week for a Pizza With Purpose evening as they learned more about the realities of homelessness and made sandwiches for StreetLights Outreach distribution.

There is much for which to be thankful!
