Becoming Disciples of Jesus and Stewards of God's Gifts

First Sunday of Lent
March 8 & 9, 2025

Led By the Spirit to Okolona

This week we enter fully into the Lenten Season, hearing the story of Jesus and the temptations that he faced in the desert. But the words that lead this story are what most intrigue me. "Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days."

Led by the Spirit! That is what Sr. Liz and Sr. Nancy experienced many years ago as they journeyed to Okolona, Mississippi to establish a ministry that would become Excel, Inc. That is also what eight of us from Resurrection Parish experienced last week as we journeyed, not into the desert, but twelve hours south to Okolona. Over the course of four days a new awning was built, new floors were installed, technology was updated, fresh coats of paint were applied, an office was given a makeover for new renters, and relationships were formed and strengthened. It was a great week!

In my four years here at Resurrection I have heard many times that it is too bad that we are not involved with Okolona anymore. That could not be further from the truth. Each year we have sent a team to perform needed work, much like what we did this month. The difference is that the Sisters who operate Excel now are fully in the driver's seat, reaching out to us when help is needed and wanted.

Resurrection has been involved in other ways with Okolona and specifically Excel. We continue to provide a Mission Outreach Mini Grant, usually for more money than the amount requested. The Tree of Giving Program continues to provide numerous gift cards to Home Depot and Walmart for the needs of the organization. Generous individuals have continued to contribute to the needs of the Sisters with bountiful checks. Finally, the Sisters, though not getting any younger, have continued to journey north to Green Bay when the opportunity arises. We have not left Okolona behind, that is for sure! The difference might be that we have also added numerous service and justice opportunities on a local and regional basis over and beyond what has always existed.

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days. There he was tempted by Satan in various ways. As our group was led by the Spirit to Okolona, the only temptation that we experienced was the desire to remain in that community, providing the meaningful service that was performed and enjoying the relationships that have grown over the years.

In this Lenten Season, we are called to Find Abundance in Simplicity. Once again we are reminded that the people in Okolona, a depressed community in Mississippi, have little in terms of material wealth. But, with the help of the Sisters who are stationed there, they seem to find abundance in the joy of living. Many people in our community of the Green Bay area live the same reality. As we empty our closets, simplify our diets, and give generously to others, we will be led through prayer by the Spirit. Let the journey begin!

Finding Abundance in Simplicity

from the Care for Creation Committee

When faced with the scale and complexity of the climate crisis, it's easy to become fatigued and overwhelmed, and to feel like the small changes we make in our lives aren't enough in the big picture. When it's large corporations creating the majority of the problem, does what we do as individuals truly matter? Can we really make a difference?

Absolutely! As Pope Francis notes in Laudate Deum,

Efforts by households to reduce pollution and waste, and to consume with prudence, are creating a new culture. . . . Let us realize, then, that even though this does not immediately produce a notable effect from the quantitative standpoint, we are helping to bring about large processes of transformation rising from deep within society. (71)

Over the last few months, our committee has been using this space to promote simple, everyday changes that can help foster an environmentally sustainable lifestyle. As we continue to do so this Lenten season, we invite you to join us in finding abundance in simplicity (per Resurrection's Lenten theme), creating a new culture, and inspiring large transformations—in our families, our church, and our community—through small actions.
